GERMANS ARE BLAMED

They Are Indirectly Accused of Fomenting Trouble.

MINISTER OF CHINESE

Says Should His People Commit an Overt Act Against Foreigners Those Offending Will Be Promptly Punished.

Washington, Feb. 17.—The Post says: "There is no danger whatever of an uprising in China against foreigners," said Sir Chentung Liang Chang, Chinese minister. It is true, of course, there is a political agitation in China, but the object is to create such excitement as will cause international complications with a view of crippling, if not wholly destroying, the present dynasty. My government is amply prepared to meet any emergency. If, as the result of the agitation now going on, a worthy foreigner is harmed, the emperor's soldiers will pounce upon the community that harbors the miscreants and lay it waste. Should they be unable to find every one of the scoundrels responsible, directly or indirectly, for the trouble, the slaughter of Chinese by the emperor's soldiers will be more horrible than that of the Yuanse soldiers six years ago if the miscreants now at work to involve China in foreign trouble do not desist.

"Is it a fact that Germany, or Germans, are mainly responsible for the large part of the threatening trouble in China at present?" he was asked. "The Germans are aggressive," he replied. "Since the dawn of your civilization Germans have been disturbers of the peace and repose of other peoples and nations within what is now the Christian domain. They seem always discontented with what they have. Their energy appears to demand the whole world in which to bustle. I don't say that they are responsible in any sense for what is going on behind the scenes in China. I merely tell you that I heard that stated in well-informed and responsible quarters. Granting concessions to foreigners have been too fruitful a source of trouble," he continued, "and so we shall attend to our own affairs in future, and we hope the outside world, the Christian world, will permit us to do this."

PECULIAR PENANCE.

Girl Cauterizes an Arm and Dies From Burns Resulting.

Chicago, Feb. 17.—The Tribune received this dispatch from Cincinnati: Rose Elmer, aged seventeen, an inmate of Bethany home, an Episcopal orphanage in Glendale, died from burns received while cauterizing her arm in a self-imposed penance, during which she accidentally set fire to her clothing.

The girl desired to become a nurse. Lillian Fears, a three-year-old inmate of the home, was suffering from a small cut in the arm, and Miss Elmer attempted to readjust the bandages. In doing so she knocked over a kettle of boiling water that scalded the child's arm badly.

Remorse for the accident caused Miss Elmer much suffering.

It is believed she gained the idea she could atone for the accident by burning herself on the arm. She was seen by other children holding her bare arm over a grate fire, so that the flames touched the bare flesh. Before anyone could interfere her clothing caught fire and she was soon enveloped in flames. She never rallied from the shock.

RACING CONTINUES.

Tennessee Anti-Track Betting Bill Declared Unconstitutional.

Memphis, Feb. 17.—The state supreme court, according to Nashville advices, declares the Rice-Ligon anti-betting bill unconstitutional. This means there will be racing at Memphis and Nashville this spring, as usual. A great fight was made in the last legislature over the bill, and it finally passed both houses and was signed by the governor. The Memphis Jockey club announced it would make no attempt to hold a race meeting unless the act was declared unconstitutional. Secretary MacFarland of that club announces he has been working on the stakes, and all of them have been well filled. He predicts one of the most successful meetings in the history of the jockey club.

Bells of Boston Pealed.

Boston, Feb. 17.—The bells of Boston pealed at noon Saturday in observance of the wedding of Miss Alice Roosevelt. This was by direction of Mayor Fitzgerald, who arranged that for five minutes the bells should be sounded on public buildings and on many churches.

In Most Cordial Terms.

Vienna, Feb. 17.—Emperor Francis Joseph has sent a congratulatory telegram, couched in most cordial terms, to President Roosevelt, in connection with the marriage of his daughter Alice to Congressman Longworth.

TO CALL EXTRA SESSION.

Governor Lanham Has Set the Date For March 26.

Austin, Feb. 17.—Governor Lanham took the newspaper correspondents into his private office at the noon hour Saturday and announced that it is his present intention to call an extra session of the legislature to convene Monday, March 26. When asked what he would include in his call he declined to express himself, saying that would come out later.

WILL HAVE THEATERS.

Sam and Lee Shubert Company to Operate in Texas.

New York, Feb. 17.—Lee Shubert, of the Sam and Lee Shubert company, incorporated anti-trust theatrical managers, in an interview confirmed the reports received here from Fort Worth and other Texas points to the effect that his firm was about to open theaters in the principal Texas cities. "Yes, we are negotiating for a theater in Dallas and in the principal Texas cities," he said, "and the matter has been fully under consideration by myself and associates for some time. We have gone over the ground carefully, of course, but I cannot tell you who are acting as our principals in these Texas negotiations or specify the property at this time, for arrangements are not quite completed, and to give names and details might frustrate and perhaps block our game, but we are going in to get our share of the Texas field and Texas theatrical business, and we mean to have it. Perhaps in a week or ten days I can give out particulars, for deals are likely to be closed any minute from now on. We can give Texas all our New York successes fresh off Broadway and the best of the companies now touring."

COMMISSIONS OPINION.

Important Ruling Made by the Attorney General of Texas.

Austin, Feb. 17.—In answer to an inquiry from Comptroller Stephens, the attorney general's department has handed down a most important opinion relative to commissions of county tax collectors for issuing poll tax receipts and exemptions. The attorney general holds that all tax collectors in any county in the state shall receive only ten cents commission on each poll tax receipt, or exemption issued, and not fifteen cents, as heretofore. This decision is based on Section 10 of the Terrell election law. The question was originally propounded to the comptroller by N. W. Hampton, tax collector of Gonzales county.

AFTER RAILROADS.

All but One Entering Waco Have Action Brought Against Them.

Waco, Feb. 17.—County Attorney O. H. Cross filed suits in the district court against every railroad entering Waco except the Texas Central for failure to provide suitable closets for males and females at stations in the county. The suits brought are under the new law and total amount sued for failure to comply is $66,000. The penalty by failure to comply is $100 per week. The suit against Katy is for $18,000; Cotton Belt, $12,000; International and Great Northern, $12,000; Santa Fe, $9,000; Sap, $6,000. The law went into effect July 15.

TRAILED FOR A YEAR.

Berry Tillman, Just Back From South America, Arrested.

Houston, Feb. 17.—Berry Tillman, who is alleged to have killed a prominent farmer of Freestone county named Hamilton, for whom he worked, returned from South America and was placed under arrest. A son of the deam man is alleged to have trailed him for a year.

EDITOR MARRIES.

His Bride Is a Literary Writer of Marked Ability.

Fort Worth, Feb. 17.—Hec A. McEachin, editor of the Fort Worth Daily Mail-Telegram and Texas Stockman Journal, was married Friday evening to Mrs. Roxanna Mace, known to the literary world as "Vernie Tawson," at the residence of the bride in North Fort Worth.

TO BE NINE STORIES.

Building Will Cost Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars.

Mineral Wells, Tex., Feb. 17.—The building to be erected here by Major J. D. Beardsley will cost $250,000. It will be used as a bank and for office purposes. Work of construction will soon begin.

MRS. ALLEN SUICIDES.

Wife of a Grand Saline Banker Takes Her Life.

Grand Saline, Tex., Feb. 17.—Mrs. George Allen, wife of a banker of this place, shot herself with fatal effect. It is alleged that Mr. and Mrs. Allen had separated. She went to his boarding house, and while there placed a revolver to her head and took her life.

NOW MRS. LONGWORTH

Miss Alice Roosevelt Bride of the Ohio Congressman.

WHITE HOUSE SCENE

Ceremony Is Performed In the East Room Before a Gathering of Notable Persons, Bishop Satterlee Officiating.

Washington, Feb. 17.—In the presence of a vast concourse, composed of distinguished personages of this and other lands, Miss Alice Roosevelt, eldest daughter of the chief executive of the nation, and Hon. Nicholas Longworth of Cincinnati, a member of the lower house of congress, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony in the east room of the white house at noon to-day.

The ceremony, which was performed by Rt. Rev. Henry Y. Satterlee, Protestant Episcopal bishop of the diocese of Washington, was that of the Impressive ritual of the Episcopal church. The bride was given away by her father.

The east room the scene of many a social function, never contained a greater array of elegantly gowned women and more carefully attired men than upon this occasion, while the gorgeous costumes of representatives of both hemispheres gave a color theme to the occasion brilliant in the extreme. The historic room was decorated as never before.

There were so many guests present, nearly 1,000, that many were forced to go to the green room.

After the ceremony and the reception of the guests by the bride and groom a buffet wedding breakfast was served.

The white house grounds were closed throughout the day, and no one except those who were invited were permitted to enter. The executive offices were also closed throughout the day, and all work suspended.

Major Richard Sylvester, superintendent of the Metropolitan police department, perfected arrangements for

MRS. NICHOLAS LONGWORTH keeping the streets adjoining the white house open so that carriages could have free access to the gates and congestion prevented.

Photographers and special newspaper writers arrived in Washington from all over the country, some coming from European countries. However only a limited number of newspaper men were invited, and these were either personally known to the family or are personal friends.

Late Friday afternoon the wedding was rehearsed in the east room. None but the wedding party were present. The president at the time was in conference with Secretary Bonaparte. The bishop was not present either.

Mr. Longworth, accompanied by his best man and the ushers, walked from Mr. Longworth's home to the white house, where they joined Miss Roosevelt and the other members of the wedding party. A large section of the United States marine band was in attendance, playing the music for the rehearsal.

Throughout the day express wagons and private messengers were continually arriving at the white house with wedding gifts. Presents have been pouring in constantly from all quarters of the globe.

The immediate vicinity of the white house was a veritable sea of faces, the throng being immense, and the police were kept busy.

CARD FROM R. T. BOYLE.

I am informed that my record as alderman is being used in the matter of the sale of the city property, and parties are endeavoring to create the impression that if I am elected mayor I will use my influence in getting the city property sold by the city council. I said in a card in the Pilot on 16th that I was opposed to the sale of any city property. I desire here now to repeat that I never will consent to the sale of any city property except by vote of the people.

All I have ever done in the sale of said property was merely preliminary, and I only acted as a member of the following committee appointed by the council, as shown by the records: W. S. Howell, chairman; J. E. Covey and myself. R. T. Boyle. (Advertisement.)

HACK SERVICE.

Headquarters at Exchange Saloon. After closing hours you can get information at Exchange Hotel or Central depot. Very prompt attention given to all calls. Very respectfully, Ed. Tally. 63

The news has been received here that the negro, Tillman, charged with the murder of Sam A. Seay, about two years ago, the particulars of which are familiar to the readers of the Meteor, had been apprehended at Jackson, Miss., and that he had been identified by a deputy sheriff of Freestone county, who had known Tillman many years. Tillman will be brought back here as soon as the necessary requisition papers from the governor of Texas have been presented to the governor of Mississippi and acted on by him.—Madisonville Meteor. Referring to this matter, Mr. W. P. Trant informs the Eagle that the negro was brought through Navasota yesterday while he was there, in the hands of officers, and that Capt. E. B. Seay, father of the young man who was killed, accompanied the officers.

TO THE VOTERS OF BRYAN.

The resignation of Mr. R. T. Boyle as alderman not having been accepted by the City Council of Bryan, only two candidates for the nomination of aldermen can be voted for. This notice is given out to counteract the impression that three aldermen are to be voted for, when in fact only two aldermen can be elected at this election.

J. W. Doremus, Chairman of Executive Committee of Democratic Party of the City of Bryan.

Misses Ruby and Vivian, whose hospitality and entertainments are well known, invited the members of the Oretts Club and a few friends to the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. James, on Friday night. On entering the front door they were greeted by three "cushions" seated on sofa pillows. The ladies were Misses Ruby and Vivian, James and Erna Harris. A Japanese cake was served. The house, was so well decorated with Japanese hangings, rugs, lanterns and umbrellas, that the guests were free to confess themselves artists in decoration. Several games were played in the afternoon. One of the joys was the drawing of a Japanese flag. Miss Albert was given the club prize, a picture, and Miss Alma Cole the prize, a water color picture, for different nations. Miss Connico won a pretty Japanese pin, proving the most adept
